Vipassana Meditation is a silent 10 day retreat where each person is taught a technique that can bring transformation for inner peace and harmony through a process of mental refinement through self observation.

There are no fees to attend. The courses are made possible by donations from previous students.

Course fills up quickly, register asap at: www.patapa.dhamma.org